Celebrate National Hispanic Heritage Month

Spotlight on September's

Author and Artist-of-the-Month: Yuyi Morales

Explore authentic Mexican culture and lore in the pages of author and illustrator Yuyi Morales's exquisite picture books. A master puppet maker, folk dancer and host of her own Spanish language radio program for children, the bay-area resident is the recipient of many awards including: the Golden Kite Award for illustration, and the prestigious Pura Belpré Honor Award for an outstanding work by a Latino/Latina person. Ask a librarian about more suggestions to celebrate National Hispanic Heritage Month.

Parents and teachers: Help your scholars celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month with lessons and activities developed by Scholastic Literacy. Log onto the Scholastic Teachables link on the Moorestown Library website to access lessons and activities for grades Pre-K to 8th in English and Spanish and supportive of ELL student's development.

Did you know the children's collection carries books in Spanish, including talking books?
